Dear all,

Upon the 55th anniversary of the Tular Cave Laboratory, and within the project frame "With Proteus we share dependence on groundwater", together with the host, the Municipality of Dobrepolje, we are cordially inviting you to attend the workshop on December 12, 2015 in Cultural Centre "Jakličev Dom", Videm 35, Videm, Dobrepolje, in memory of Slovenia's first cave laboratory at Podpeška jama (1928–1931).

SOS PROTEUS: IMPLEMENTATION OF MONITORING AND PRACTICAL ACTIONS FOR CONSERVATION OF PROTEUS IN SLOVENIA

Participants are invited to give a short lecture (15+5 min) to present their experiences, methods and solutions, and/or to participate in the discussion on how to start monitoring of Proteus, within topics:

- Distribution of Proteus
- Conservation status of Proteus and its habitat
- New methods of monitoring
- Veterinary challenges in conservation of Proteus
- Negative anthropogenic pressures on groundwater, emergency response to environmental hazards
- Concrete conservation actions and best practice, public outreach
- Obligations of the national and EU conservation legislation, and international conventions
- Funding for research and conservation of Proteus and Karst

We kindly ask you to confirm your participation until December 9, 2015 using the online form <http://goo.gl/forms/dWqXuCtb2N>. The workshop has no registration fee. Languages of presentations are Slovene or English. In case of larger number of presentations, the final selection will be made by the programme committee (Prof. Dr. Peter Trontelj, Andrej Hudoklin and Gregor Aljančič). Presentations will be published in form of short papers in the Natura Sloveniae (details available at online registration page), authors are asked to submit their manuscripts at the workshop.

Thank you in advance for your participation and valuable contribution at the workshop.

Gregor Aljančič,
Head of Tular Cave Laboratory

Janez Pavlin,
Mayor of Dobrepolje
